

YOU ARE ONE IN A MILLION

Let's celebrate individuals and organizations who inspire us. Let's honor the teachers, first responders, bus drivers and the countless others helping in any way they can.

Between now and August 31st nominate anyone you know making a difference. We will honor one million individuals and organizations with the One in a Million Award.

When does the campaign take place?

There's plenty of time to take part. The campaign runs from now –August 31st.

Who should participate?

Everyone! If you or an individual or organization is doing something to help others nominate them. Every good act counts.

How does it work?

Participating is as easy as 1-2-3.

1. Nominate yourself or someone else for a good act. (Any good act counts!)
2. Receive a One in a Million Award.
3. Share your award to inspire others!

One or more recipients of the One in a Million Award will be selected to receive recognition at a future Jefferson Award ceremony and the most impactful will receive grants.

Why should you participate in the One in a Million Campaign?

1. It helps you shine a light on the amazing service happening around you.
2. It's free and easy!
3. It inspires others to get involved in helping!

Visit: onemillionawards.com

